

Environment & Diversity Project Webinar Series: Lessons Learned by Six Environmental NGOs

In 2011, the Environment and Diversity Project supported six organizations as they embarked on their own initiatives that that would help them better reflect and engage ethno-cultural and/or Aboriginal communities.

Join us for a series of one-hour webinars as these organizations impart their findings from their projects, and learn from them as they share their experiences in striving to be more diverse and inclusive.

Ontario Environmental Network (OEN)
“Working with Indigenous Communities”
Monday, March 5th, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

FutureWatch
‘Changing Faces’
Wednesday, March 21st, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

Greenest City
‘Managing our Diversity Initiative’
Wednesday, April 4th, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

Halton Environmental Network (HEN)
‘Connecting with Ethno-Cultural Communities in Halton’
Tuesday, April 17th, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

Women’s Healthy Environments Network (WHEN)
“Engaging Newcomer Women and Families”
Wednesday, May 2nd, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

Bonnechere River Watershed Project (BRWP)
‘Working with Algonquins of the Pikwakanagan First Nation’
Wednesday, May 16th, 2012 1:30 – 2:30pm EST

Webinars in affiliation with:

Webinars are free of charge but registration is required.

Please send an email to registrations@sustainabilitynetwork.ca (with your full name and affiliation) indicating the webinar name in the subject line.